

This term our topic is: Santorini

This half term, we are going to be learning about the geography of Santorini and then comparing it to Sheffield.

The climate in Santorini is warm and sunny.

Santorini is an island off the coast of Greece. It is in the continent of Europe.

Santorini is home to many of the same human features you will find in Sheffield!

Santorini was formed by a volcanic eruption! This has affected the physical features of the island!

Grapes are grown in Santorini which is made into wine.

Santorini has many beaches which are surrounded by huge cliffs!

Santorini is home to some hot springs that are very popular with tourists!

In Santorini there are lots of jobs in the tourism industry

This term our topic is: Santorini

Key Vocabulary

Island: an area of land completely surrounded by water

City: a large town which is highly populated.

Volcano: an opening in the Earth's crust through which lava, smoke and gasses escape from.

Industry: the ways in which people make money and the jobs they do.

Tourism: people going to visit places for a holiday and to relax.

Elevation: how high a patch of land is.

Relief map: a map which shows us how high different areas are

Field work: when geographers go out into the world to collect information to base their ideas on.

Climate: the average state of everyday's weather condition

Human features: the parts of a place that have been created by humans.

Physical features: the parts of a place that have been formed naturally.